

VILLA SLAUGHTERS CHINESE---LITTLE HOPE FOR AMERICANS

COUNCIL SIDE OF THE LIGHT QUESTION

Vice President Iver Benson, of Council, Says Brainerd will Get Lights Whenever It Pays for Them

Council Must Stay within the Provisions of the City Charter, Terms of the Law Must be Observed

In an interview on the status of the light question in Brainerd, Iver Benson, vice president of the city council, said:

"Brainerd will get street lights whenever the city gets the money to pay for it. If the council should order the lights turned on again, it would be ordering a service for which it cannot pay and the councilmen would violate the terms of the charter.

"The council must stay within the provisions of the law as laid down by the city charter. Why have a city charter if its terms are not lived up to?"

"With the council it's not a question of policy, of following the wish of the people. As I understand the matter, it is a question of following the charter provisions."

REFUGEES RUSH INTO JUAREZ

WOUNDED FILL THE HOSPITALS

Tell of Dead Piled in Streets of Capital City—De Facto Officers Charged With Deserting Troops in Wild Scramble to Avoid Bandits.

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 1.—The remnant of a Carranza army that fled from Chihuahua City after a battle with Villa troops is in camp on the plains south of Juarez. The troops brought with them the story of the evacuation of the city after four days and nights of fighting.

The dead were piled high in the streets when they left, and had been covered with oil and burned, they said.

Soon after 1 a. m. the first troop train brought the ragged survivors of the de facto force which had escaped to the north.

Accompanying this train was a sanitary section consisting of three second-class coaches and one "white cross" hospital car. In these cars were more than 100 wounded soldiers of the Carranza command.

Hospitals Filled With Wounded.

The hospitals here are filled with wounded. The troop trains which brought this surviving force to the border left Chihuahua City at 10:30 a. m. Monday.

All of the refugees agreed that Carranza troops were winning during the first four days of the fighting, but either because of shortage of ammunition or lack of morale, they abandoned the city early on the fifth morning of the battle, seeking safety in flight in all directions.

The cavalry, artillery and infantry poured down the streets leading to the station which is north of the city proper, they said, and climbed aboard the train in a wild rush to get away. One refugee claimed to have seen officers leave their men fighting to flee for safety.

Trevino Flees South.

It is believed by the refugees and Carranza officers that General Trevino left first for Tabalopa, south of the city, and from there moved to Aldama, about twenty miles from Chihuahua City.

One Mexican civilian refugee declared he had seen Francisco Villa in the city Monday morning before the train left. He said Villa was walking without the aid of crutches as if to inspire his men with his fortitude. His moustache was shaved off and he looked much thinner than of old.

Nothing was known of the Americans by these refugees. All of the refugees agree that there had been no killing of foreigners up to the time they left, although there were rumors that several Chinese had been killed.

TRAIN RUNS WITHOUT PILOT
With Engineer Dead Locomotive Is Unguided for Thirty Miles.

Phillipsburg, N. J., Dec. 1.—While its engineer, Johnson Shaffer, lay dead beside the tracks, near Black Tom island, a milk train on the Lehigh Valley railroad ran thirty miles beyond that point before the fireman, Allen Miller, discovered Shaffer was missing.

Shaffer apparently had climbed out of the cab on the running board of his engine and had fallen off, sustaining fatal injuries. He was sixty-eight years old.

STANDARD OIL HEAD IS CRITICALLY ILL

Tarrytown, N. Y., Dec. 1.—John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, and active head of Standard Oil interests, is dangerously ill at his home here, although his condition is somewhat better than it was twenty-four hours ago.

Mr. Archbold was operated on for appendicitis a week ago and for a time seemed to rally from the effects of the operation, but later suffered a relapse. The five physicians who have been attending him since his illness began decided blood transfusion must be resorted to.

Mrs. Archbold is reported to have collapsed under the strain of her husband's illness and to be under a physician's care.

Firmer Policy Toward Mexico is now Planned

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 1.—The United Press has learned that a firmer policy toward Mexico has been planned if Carranza fails to deal adequately with the present vexing problems, and such policy will soon be placed in force if Carranza is unable to cope with the rising situation.

But Little Hope Entertained for Safety Americans

(By United Press)
El Paso, Dec. 1.—Four refugees arriving here this afternoon told the United States authorities that on Tuesday after capturing Chihuahua City that Villa began slaughtering the Chinese residents of the town, and that over 50 Chinese had been murdered when the refugees escaped. With these reports of wanton slaughter little hope is entertained for the safety of the Americans known to be there.

JUDGE W. L. CHAMBERS.
Will Attempt to Prevent Strike on Southern Road.

ROAD, FACING STRIKE, ASKS FOR MEDIATION

Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 1.—Services of the federal board of mediation and conciliation were asked by President J. H. Peyton of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway to adjust a controversy with the road's employees, which has resulted in the brotherhood members voting overwhelmingly in favor of a strike. Brotherhood officials did not join in the request for mediation, but indicated they would not oppose it.

President Peyton's request was telegraphed to Judge W. L. Chambers of the board, who replied immediate steps will be taken to begin mediation proceedings. The employees contend they are not given proper opportunity to take up grievances against the company through brotherhood officials, but are compelled to act individually.

The brotherhood leaders notified the road more than 90 per cent of the brotherhood members have voted to strike, and added that if a satisfactory reply were not forthcoming by 6 p. m. they were prepared to put into effect the wishes of their men. To this, President Peyton replied by proposing to submit the whole controversy to mediation.

Library accounts are kept in the city hall and upon examination of them the casual stranger wonders why the library board has not previously paid its bill of $668, owing for water and light as furnished them by the water and light board.

City Clerk Mahlum read the figures from the library account. Last October the library board had on hand $664.87 and in November bills of $170.75 were paid, leaving a balance of $494.12. The tax settlement last year in November yielded $378.72. This year Crow Wing county has one of the largest settlements in its whole history, which would bring funds of the library board up to $872 or more.

An arrangement has now been offered by the water and light board whereby the library board can pay up its indebtedness in installments and in addition the cost of current has been reduced from 6½ cents to 4 cents a kilowatt.

Original War Orders to "Get Villa" are Still in Force

(By United Press)
Washington, Dec. 1.—The war department says that the original war orders to Gen. Pershing to get Villa will stand, however, conditions are so altered that he will await fresh orders from Mexico before making any move, but if such an opportunity as Villa occupying Juarez presents itself the Americans will strike. Experts seem to think that Villa is too crafty to start for Juarez within 60 miles of Gen. Pershing.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES TODAY

It was in the last act of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" and Fendell playing the part of the sham General Fuller took his bayonet and stabbed the floor. "There, Workman," he yelled. "goes three holes into the stage rug."

Mr. Workman wasn't around, but as the show played to the biggest house in the history of the place, maybe he won't kick.

December turns out better weather than November and November was better than October. Accordingly, who ever heard of a Minnesota man running to Florida or California to spend a winter when this brand of weather is on tap.

It's great to be a kid nowadays. In former days who ever heard of a Chamber of Commerce helping the kids to build a warming house, giving them lights and entering into their plans with zest and hearty goodwill. It's good business, good policy. A safe place to skate means no loss of lives, fewer accidents and boosts winter sport and makes better boys and girls.

Farmers on the 13th street road claim 37 cars passed a given point in one afternoon. If many contented themselves with mere passing, it would not arouse the farmers' ire. What gets the farmers riled up is the accompaniment of "bum" singing, the throwing of beer bottles and the ribald salutes sometimes handed out. The gayety handed out is resented and a soft pedal should be put on before the farmers are stirred to deeper resentment.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

CONCERNS PERSONAL INJURY

Two Verdicts in Watkins Medical Co. vs Herman Wendt, Edward Boppel and J. H. Koop

The case of Robert Gunderson, an infant, by his guardian, L. A. Gunderson vs Frank D. Corey, Lawrence Lowe, Ray McKelvie and the Little Giant Amusement Co., came to a halt in district court this afternoon, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Corey, one of the principal owners of the amusement company which has its show headquarters in Superior, Wis. Mr. Corey was located in St. Paul and expects to be in Brainerd on the midnight train.

Evidence taken in the case shows that on June 5 last year during the playing of the street fair attraction at Iron-ton, a stray bullet presumably from a shooting gallery of the defendant, struck young Robert Gunderson, then 19 years old, in the knee while he was passing along a short cut with two companions and walking in the rear of the shooting gallery and the dance hall on the way to the Armour No. 2 mine.

Gunderson and his two companions stopped to look in at the side wall of the dance hall tent. They turned to go down the path and Gunderson felt a twinge in his knee. At the office Dr. Smith was called and advised painting iodine on the wound. The doctor probed the next day but located no bullet, neither with the X-ray photograph made. The wound, as testified by the doctor, might have been caused by a bullet. The plaintiff said he suffered severe discomfort at times.

The jury returned two verdicts in the case of the J. R. Watkins Medical Co. vs Herman Wendt, Edward Boppel and John Herman Koop. This was a suit on a contract made with Herman Wendt, alleged to have been guaranteed by Boppel and Koop. The jury found for the plaintiff as against the defendant Herman Wendt and assessed damages at $1,416.72 and interest at 6 percent from March 1, 1914.

The defendants, Boppel and Koop, virtually admitted their liability in the amount named and the jury found against them and assessed damages in favor of the plaintiff as against them at $351.36, with interest at 6 percent.

A default judgment was taken in the case of the Brainerd State bank vs A. N. Jacobs, late editor of the Crow Wing County Digest, being the unpaid balance due on a note.

In searching to find out how drugs act upon the body, Dr's have learned that the body acts best without the use of drugs. Medical literature teems with admissions that drugs kill more than they cure.

It is an old superstition that one must take a drug for every ill, but the people are gradually breaking away from it. Have you ever stopped to think, How, and in what way, drugs can cure?

What intelligence is there in a bottle of medicine, or a box of pills? Compare them with nature. How can they possess the knowledge of building a cell in the human body? Can drugs mend broken or misplaced bones in your body?

I say emphatically NO. Nature alone with the aid of a competent Chiropractor can do such work. Investigate and be convinced.

BRITAIN CHANGES ITS NAVAL HEADS

London, Nov. 30.—Admiral Sir John R. Jellicoe, commander of the British fleet, has been appointed first sea lord of the admiralty, being succeeded in command of the grand fleet by Vice Admiral Sir David Beatty, who commanded the British battle cruiser squadron in the Jutland naval battle. Admiral Sir Henry B. Jackson, present first sea lord, has been appointed president of the royal naval college at Greenwich. The announcement of the change in command of the British grand fleet was made in the house of commons by A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty. Mr. Balfour said there would be consequential changes also in the board of the admiralty. The decision involving the appointments of Admirals Jellicoe, Beatty and Jackson was taken some time ago, Mr. Balfour said, but for military reasons the announcement was delayed.

FEDERAL ACTION FLAYS SUITS

New York, Nov. 30.—The constitutionality of the Adamson act was upheld and the right of the railroads to sue for injunctions against it was attacked in a motion filed in federal court here by D. B. Lucey, United States attorney for the Northern district of New York, requesting the dismissal of the complaints made by the New York Central and Erie railroads. Mr. Lucey was one of the defendants named in the railroad suits. The motion papers ask for the throwing out of the injunction suits on the ground they have been brought against the United States without its necessary consent; that they seek to enforce the enforcement of a criminal statute; that they are unnecessary to protect property rights; that they are "without equity on their face," and because the railroads have adequate remedy at law.

FENDELLS IN GOOD LUCK

Discover Country Cousins in South Long Lake and Enjoy Thanks-giving Dinner There

PLAY TO BIG HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Hundreds Turned Away as Opera House had Every Seat, Every Box Filled to Capacity

When the Fendell stock company, in later days, refers to Thanksgiving day, of 1916, it will not need much of an effort of the memory to remember it, as it was a day in which good luck simply opened wide the sluices and showered the entire company with good fortune of all kinds.

The Fendell's located cousins in South Long Lake township at the home of R. M. Potter and the latter took them out in his car and the whole company sat down to a Thanksgiving spread such as only Mrs. Potter can cook and serve, and it was with the utmost satisfaction that the turkey and the trimmings, the pies, cakes, etc., disappeared.

It was a remarkable coincidence that brought to light the fact that Miss Fendell, leading lady of the company, had relations near Brainerd. In conversation with stage hands Mr. Fendell made reference to the fact that Miss Fendell's maiden name was Freeman.

That is the maiden name of Mrs. R. M. Potter and inquiry on the telephone elicited the fact that Mrs. Potter is a sister of Mrs. Fendell's mother, that both had lived in Ontario, Canada. At the Potter home the family album was paged and there was found a picture of Miss Fendell when she was a baby.

Returning to Brainerd the company showed to the largest audience ever packed into a Brainerd opera house. Every seat was taken, every gallery space had an individual squeezed in. Heads touched the ceilings. Every box was jammed. There wasn't a bit of room left and the "Standing Room Only" sign had to be hung out. As it was, hundreds were turned away from the doors, unable to get a look in at the ticket office.

Farmers from South Long Lake township and other townships for miles around came to see the show. Telephone lines were worked over time as theatre parties were formed. On Front street there was a jam of Fords and other cars.

"It's a Long Way to Tipperary" was played Thursday night and every line scored a laugh. And the applause was unstinted too. Tonight the company has a change of bill and will present a new version of "The Rosary." Saturday night they give "Daddy Long Legs."

Three Artists of Reputation in the Musical World to Appear at Trades & Labor Hall

The three artists to appear at the Trades & Labor hall this evening have become famous in the world of music. Berliot Hafstad was born in this country and has studied several years in Europe. Miss Hafstad was the accompanist to Dr. E. Kraus who worked so strenuously to get permanent opera in Minneapolis. CHANGE IN HOME LIFE

Ready to Wear Garments Gradually Replacing the Sewing at Home

The advertisement of the H. F. Michael Co. tonight shows the change that is gradually taking place in the home life.

It has been but a few years since the majority of women did their own sewing. Since style plays such an important part, women find that they cannot give the home made garment the style which the standards of today demand and they buy ready-to-wear clothes which embody the style features they wish and which are tailored as the home cannot do.

The H. F. Michael Co. announce the dress goods department will be materially reduced in size and the ready-to-wear section increased in proportion.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody will Know.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

There is one sure, safe way to avoid blotchy, pimply skin. A good or bad complexion comes from within. If you want a clear complexion, a clean skin—rosy cheeks and good health, your blood must be pure and the poisonous matter must be carried off.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets assist nature to remove all poisonous waste matter in the system. They act on the liver and bowels like calomel yet have no dangerous after-effects. They are reliable—safe and cannot harm—are used by women folks everywhere.

Constipation is nearly always the cause of all ailments of women. The intestines must be made to do their work as nature intended—in a normal way. Have color in your cheeks. Take one or two tablets nightly and note the pleasing results. All druggists—10c and 25c.

REDUCE LONG DISTANCE TOLLS

Beginning today a new schedule of rates will go into effect on long distance tolls up to and including 12 miles, on the Northwestern Telephone company's and the Tri State Telephone & Telegraph company's lines in Minnesota. The new schedule of rates will be considerably lower than the old one and was brought about by the state railroad and warehouse commission, following an investigation. The commission believed that the minimum rate of 20 cents for short haul messages was excessive. Formerly the standard minimum rate was 20 cents for distances from 0 to 17 miles but under the new rate a 15-cent rate is established for distances up to 12 miles and the old rate for distances from 12 to 17 miles. Every exchange and every town in this state that is directly connected with either company is affected by the change and consequently all the patrons are benefited. The mileage included in these rates is not, as many may suppose, based on the length of pole lines required to convey the message, but on air line distances and in many cases the actual haul will be from two to four or five times the actual distance between points.

While Minnesota gave the republican candidate for the presidency only a small lead over the democratic candidate the vote for United States senator and the balance of the republican ticket gives food for thought and shows that the state is a long way from being democratic, or near democratic. The vote for Frank B. Kellogg gave him a majority in all but four counties in the state. Governor Burnquist carried every county and in two counties led his democratic opponent by 19 to one, and was elected by the largest majority ever accorded a gubernatorial candidate in the state. Thomas Frankson was elected lieutenant governor and carried every county in the state but two. Considerable notice has been attracted to Gov. Burnquist for his remarkable run, both in the primary and at the general election, and comment is general throughout the state and the occasion is embraced with the showing made to suggest his name as a candidate to succeed Senator Knute Nelson two years hence, as it is understood that Senator Nelson does not desire a reelection.

Todd county farmers realized $60,000 for the sale of beans this year, twenty carloads, averaging over 600 bushel to the car having already been shipped from the northern part of the county. Minnesota farmers are on easy street this year.

Washington dispatches say that a more firm policy will be carried out in Mexican affairs if Carranza is unable to cope with present conditions. Is this a threat to frighten Villa?

It cost Minnesota $1 for each vote cast by the soldier boys on the border. More than this amount has been paid for votes of boys that were not on the border in times gone by.

What profiteth a man that he gain the whole world yet lose his health?

Naturalists say that long ago the prehistoric waters were infested with a species of enormous shark which finally became extinct by reason of the workings of its voracious appetite. Thus Nature eliminates the over-fed.

The desire for ease of life and plentiful diet is universal and is the great stimulus of man and animals alike. When man becomes greedy and takes more ease and food and drink than is his share, Nature discards him.

In the race for power and place, for ease of circumstance and relief from the stimulus of hunger, the modern man is apt to forget that unless he is careful of his body he will soon be made to suffer for the infraction of Nature's inexorable physical law. With the loss in body tone comes an equal loss in mental acuity and the brain which for a time was able to operate despite the complaints of an over-fed, under-exercised, self-poisoned body, stops working.

Statisticians have discovered that the mortality rate of persons in the United States over 45 years of age is increasing. The strenuous life of today is not alone responsible for this. Lack of health-giving exercise, superfluity of diet, lack of restoring sleep, over stimulation, the high pressure of the race for power, wealth and position, plus physical neglect, these bring early decay. The goal is reached—wealth is amassed—honor, position and power are just being grasped when the apple of accomplishment turns to the ashes of dissolution. The brilliant mind becomes clouded, the steady hand is no longer accurate, the eye which once gazed fearlessly on the whole world is dimmed and it is not long before the final break-up occurs. All of this was entirely preventable.

Other things being equal it is the man who leads the well-balanced life who lasts the longest, whose work to the end is uniformly the best, he who neither over-eats, over-drinks, nor over-stands, he who maintains a standard of simple healthy diet in moderation, who off-sets mental work with physical recreation, who is as honest with his own body as he is with his own business. When success comes to such an one his physical and mental conditions are such that he can employ in peace of mind and contentment of body the fruits of his labors.

The regulation of U. S. Public Health Service states: "It is the duty of officers to maintain their physical as well as their professional fitness. To this end they shall be allowed time for recreation and study whenever their official duties will permit." If the government regards it as essential that its sanitary experts shall be safeguarded in this way, is it not equally important to every citizen that he similarly maintain a high standard of physical integrity?

INTERSTATE PLOT CHARGED

New York Commissioner Reveals Methods of Food Storage Plotters. New York, Dec. 1.—The existence of an interstate combination of cold storage houses to keep up food prices was charged here by Joseph Hartigan, commissioner of weights and measures, who as secretary of Mayor Mitchell's committee on food supply, is investigating the cost of living with a view to effecting relief for consumers. "There is a so-called storage trust," Mr. Hartigan said. "Its membership comprises seventy-five cold storage warehouses in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. It is believed that to evade the laws of the various states, it is made easy for owners in goods in one cold storage warehouse to hold his goods in one state until just before the time expires for the goods to be released and then to move them to a warehouse in another state and keep them there as long as the law allows in that other state."

JAPANESE WAR SCARE REVIVED

WASHINGTON NOT ALARMED

West Was Surprised When It Found It Had Elected Wilson, and "Clark States" Were Important Factor in Bringing About Democratic Victory. Food Embargo and Munitions.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN. Washington, Dec. 1.—[Special].—As the time for the opening of congress approaches the Japanese war scare is revived. It always comes and remains until the army and navy appropriation bills are passed. This time it has a new dress, and it seems that the United States must prepare to meet Japan in war at the close of the war in Europe. A German seer is quoted to the new scheme and points out that while Japan is nominally at war she is only enough so as to keep her going forward in improving her army and navy and keeping them at a high state of efficiency. When the war is over and Japan is under no obligations to sustain the allies, which she is nominally supporting, let the United States look out. And so we may consider the Japanese war scare as fairly launched for the season of 1916-17.

Government Not Alarmed.

Whatever may be the idea of many who talk of war with Japan it is evident that our government is not alarmed. The government does make a pretense of defending Hawaii, but not with a sufficient force to keep the Japs out if they made an effort to capture the islands. As to naval protection on the Pacific coast it is almost negligible. The big battleships are kept in the Atlantic. As to the Asiatic fleet, so called, why, it's a joke. There are nothing but submarines of doubtful usefulness to defend the Philippines. The cruisers and other warships in Asiatic waters are old, worn-out hulks that would be sunk at first fire from a modern war vessel.

West Surprised Itself.

Congressman Albert Johnson of Washington says that the people of the west woke up very much surprised when they found that they had elected a president.

The most potent factor in the election in his state he explained by saying, "Potato growers are receiving $50 a ton, halibut fishermen are getting 15 cents a pound, and wheat growers are getting $1.50 per bushel for wheat." All those people were satisfied and did not want a change.

The Clark States.

"In 1912," remarked former Senator Dubois of Idaho, "every state west of the Missouri river except Oregon sent a Clark delegation to the Democratic national convention. In 1916 every state west of the Missouri river with the exception of Oregon voted for Wilson. The Clark states elected Wilson this year."

He did not draw any conclusions or make any claims, but the inference was that the Clark states ought to receive recognition from the administration and the Democratic party.

What Is "Pork?"

It is the purpose of the officers of the coming session of the national rivers and harbors congress, the organization devoted to the development of waterways which meets at Washington every year the first week in December, to make every person who alludes to "pork" tell just what he means. He will be requested to tell whether "pork" is the appropriation for his own community or always what the other fellow desires. More than that, he will be asked to tell how he knows what the other fellow gets is "pork."

Clearer Explanation.

Many explanations have been made as to why the Republicans were defeated. The clearest comes from C. A. Kenyon of Richmond, Ind.: "The Republicans neglected the west and underestimated the strength of Bryan. The former secretary of state was given little attention, but he was making votes for the Democrats all the time. The Democrats also used this argument with effect: 'When Wilson was inaugurated you were getting 75 cents a bushel for wheat; now you are getting $1.50. Do you want to go back to the old conditions? If so vote the Republican ticket.' In the east little importance was attached to the song, 'I Did Not Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier,' but out west the women took it seriously."

Thus high prices and peace were the issues which carried the west for Wilson.

Will It Carry?

Suppose a bill is brought forward to place an embargo on food shipped out of the United States and an amendment to include munitions, would it carry? Possibly the latter would get more votes than the food proposition.

Christmas in Washington.

Members of congress have been told that if they want to eat their Christmas dinner with their families they had better bring their families to Washington. The leaders say that there is too much important business before the session to waste two weeks or even one week in the usual holiday adjournment.

The Spy-Center of the World

Note—this is the third of a series of five articles on Sweden by William Philip Simms, Paris manager of the United Press who visited Sweden to find out what effect the war was having. Tomorrow's story tells how Stockholm has become the new "Paris."

BY WM. PHILIP SIMMS, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Stockholm, Nov. 8 (By Mail).—

This is the spy-center of the world. Here foe meets foe—but with his fingers crossed. It is neutral ground and the spy plays his ungrateful game in perfect safety.

"See that chap over there?" a friend asked, pointing across the lobby of one of the prettiest hotels in the world. "That is an Austrian military attaché. The man he is talking to is a Russian from Petrograd. I know them both."

There they were playing their games. Each trying to trick the other to some end, only heaven knew what.

"Never mind about locking your chest of drawers, or your bags or trunks," an acquaintance told me the day I landed in Stockholm. "Locks are no good here. If anybody wants to see what you have hidden away they will manage to do so. And they usually want to see."

There is perhaps no more fascinating spot anywhere than a certain great hotel here. In the world's most beautiful dining room under a sort of colonnade ranging alongside a formal garden where a superb lawn grows under a lofty glass dome, where huge palms and flowers grow in profusion and the tinkle of a fountain in the Venetian court is not much softer than the music of a hidden stringed orchestra. Germans and English, Austrians and French, Russians and Bulgars, Italians and Turks, Belgians and Hungarians and all the rest mingle at table. Not that they sit at the same table, but their elbows sometimes literally touch at adjoining boards.

Stockholm is easily accessible to all the warring countries. At the Central Railway station every night, on adjoining tracks, are three trains. One goes north to Tornea, the Russian frontier town; one to Bergen whence one takes the boat for England and France; the third goes to Gothenburg, five hours by boat from Denmark whence an express whisks one to Berlin. The Russian train leaves first—about 9 p. m., the German train second, at 9:20. So on the platforms one sees mingling and jostling, German and British, French and Prussian and all the rest.

In the hotels one has the impression that each column conceals a spy and each palm tree or three. And one is nearly right in this impression for they are as thick as fleas everywhere. Spies spying on unsuspecting persons, spies spying on spies and spies spying on spies set to catch spies. It is a great game. There is on record at least one case of one spy doing nearly all of these things at one and the same time, being simultaneously in the employ of France, England and Germany.

There are of course big games being played by men not ordinarily called spies: Diplomatic agents is the more dignified term. These are educated, cultivated men. And they do the finer, larger work. Smaller fry keep track of shipments to Russia, of the movement via Sweden of government agents, etc. Or in the case of the allies—of the shipments of materials to Germany by boat, etc. Of course there are free-lances who scurry around picking up scraps of information and selling the same for whatever the interested parties feel like paying. These are the ragpickers of the profession.

Of course there are women spies, or women agents. These are not always used as Oppenheim and other romancers lead one to imagine, but there is just enough of truth in such stories to make these women interesting. Their great utility comes through being able to mingle in high circles where they can listen to the gossip.

"Listen, my dear," says one lady to another, "here is some great scandal: I promised not to tell but I must tell it to you, knowing you'll not breathe it to a soul." And so it goes. Hotels are packed. Only by reserving a room days in advance can one find accommodation save by rare good luck. At tea time, at dinner and again at supper, the splendid restaurants here are jammed and tables are at premium. Champagne corks are popping like machine-guns. Everybody seems to have plenty of money and nobody appears to be stingy with it.

One sees many German officers in mud or evening clothes, and frequently they have their women-folk with them. These are wearing skirts quite as short as any seen in Paris and the cut of their gowns is proof that though Frenchmen and Germans are killing each other, Rue de la Paix styles have found their way to Unter den Linden.

This is the Great Cross Roads, the meeting place of the folks of the warring nations. Tonight, in the lovely supper-room, at adjoining tables, two men, their wives and daughters, all faultlessly dressed in evening clothes, hear each other talk, though in different languages. Tomorrow these two men may be leading charges at each other, over rain-soaked, shell-pitted ground. One may slaughter the other and leave the bloody, muddy corpse to be trodden on by a regiment of iron-shod men, leaving a woman without a husband, a family without a father.

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried, some days headachy, dull and unstrung, some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

OLD MAN TAKEN ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Gust Siekkinen, 1201 East Laurel Street, Arrested on Thanksgiving Afternoon

2 QUARTS WHISKEY, 16 OF BEER

Special Officer Boyd and Chief Squires Make Arrest, Haul Him to Jail in Automobile

Gust Siekkinen's Thanksgiving afternoon at his home, 1201 East Laurel street, was rudely interrupted, as he claims, by officers who commandeered 16 quart bottles of beer and two quart bottles of whiskey and three friends seated at the table fled as the old, gray-haired man, 60 years of age, a worker in the car shops, put up a tremendous defense in his home and at length was compelled to ride in an automobile to the jail, and there the cell door closed on him.

Siekkinen's own story was that he had but a little beer in his home. His wife is dead and he has two boys and a girl. As to any liquor found outside of his home he denied any knowledge whatever.

Special Officer E. G. Boyd, of the Indian department, said there had been frequent reports of drinking at Siekkinen's home. He was accompanied by Chief of Police Henry Squires when the arrest was made late Thursday afternoon at about 4 o'clock.

The two quarts of whiskey were found hidden in a woodpile, said the special officer. There were also many half filled beer bottles around on the premises, said Mr. Boyd, and a lot of empty bottles in two barrels.

The three men drinking with Siekkinen made their get away. While Boyd and Squires were making the Siekkinen arrest, two or three other men came to the door, but when they became aware of what was going on inside, they fled.

The old man protested vigorously against the action of the officers and it was some time before he quieted down in his cell.

Gust Siekkinen was before Judge W. A. Fleming, U. S. court commissioner, at 10 o'clock this morning. For an hour the judge labored to get Siekkinen to tell who brought the liquor to the latter's home.

Siekkinen refused to implicate any one. He told a vague story that he knew nothing whatever of where the liquor found outside his home came from.

To E. G. Boyd Thursday he said a big man had driven up in a buggy and left the stuff.

Special Officer Boyd testified that paths, 20 feet long, led from Siekkinen's home, one to the beer cache, one to where the whiskey was found. Both were well traveled trails. For all he knew, said Mr. Boyd, there might be more liquor planted in the wood pile, which pile was of large dimensions.

Siekkinen was virtually told he would be given his liberty if he would tell who brought him the liquor.

Siekkinen claimed somebody had left it at his house. "Why, if that's the case," said Officer Boyd, "you could get $1,000 a month rent for your place. Maybe somebody left some more liquor for you there last night and this morning. You better get a Christmas tree in the yard and maybe it will be full of presents. The only trouble is that beer and whiskey is all that's brought around as a present."

Siekkinen still maintained that somebody might have "had it in for him" and left the liquor without his knowledge on his premises, just to get him in trouble.

Andrew Kano acted as interpreter. Siekkinen was bound over to the federal court in $300 bonds, his bondsmen being Henry Mollanen and Andrew Kano.

Kano explained that November 30 was a sort of "Labor Day" celebration in the old country. Men were hired by the year and their term of employment ran out that day and was the cause of general rejoicing and accordingly might have been celebrated by Siekkinen and his friends.

AUTOMOBILE IS NOT A WAGON

Federal Judge in Montana Refuses to Confiscate a Car Used to Carry Contraband Liquor

THE DECISION IS AT VARIANCE

Federal Judges in Minnesota Have Ordered Such Cars Sold for Engaging in Illegal Traffic

From Butte, Montana, comes the report that an automobile is not a wagon, neither is it a boat or any other mode of conveyance described by the federal statute as subject to seizure and confiscation by the government when used to carry liquor or other contraband into dry Indian territory.

This is the essence of a decision just made by Judge Bourquin of the federal court in Butte in declining to order the confiscation of an automobile alleged to have been used by a half-breed by the name of Pablo in carrying liquor into the Flathead Indian reservation.

The court contends that when the statute was passed there were no automobiles and as a mode of conveyance they were unknown.

The decision is considered at variance with that of federal judges of Minnesota and other states, where cars have been seized by federal agents and sold for carrying liquor into dry Indian territory.

"LET 'EM HAVE OUR RAILWAY"

International Falls Echo" Speaks Disparagingly of its Own Street Street Railway System

MANY UNPAID BILLS AROUND

Waited Three Years for its Completion, Then Equipped with Lunch Car which Blows Up

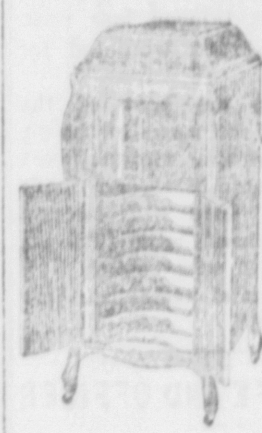

The Brainerd Dispatch recently referred to the presence of Senator Nord of International Falls in the city as giving "credence to the rumor of the revival of a street railway in Brainerd and an interurban linking up Brainerd and the Cuyuna iron range."

Whereupon the International Falls Echo thus remarks: Let 'em have ours, Nord. We waited three years for its completion. Then it was equipped with a lunch car which blows up occasionally, operating about one week in four. We wouldn't miss it and Brainerd might as well have it. Perhaps a company could be formed down there too, that could finance the time checks floating around here, which were issued to help build the road. The laboring men and merchants holding the promises to pay (which seem to have been repudiated) would be glad to trade the car line for cash on the checks, as they do the "coin of the realm" represented by the checks. Tell your citizens, Brainerd Dispatch, that if they want a car line of the Nord kind we'll gladly "swap" with them on the above basis.

DOMINGO IS QUIET UNDER U. S. FORCE

Military Rule in Republic Goes Into Effect.

MOVE IS EFFECTED QUIETLY

Eighteen Hundred American Marines Will Police Dominicans at Least Until After Election—Plan is Favor-ed by Majority of Natives.
Washington, Dec. 1.—Military rule has been proclaimed in Santo Domingo by the United States navy to sup-press existing political chaos in the little republic and pave the way for guaranteeing future quiet by estab-lishing there such a financial and po-litical protectorate as the American government now exercises over Haiti.
Eighteen hundred American marines will maintain order for the present and at least until elections are held in January their officers will supervise the conduct of government by native officials and disburse the customs revenues which American receivers have been collecting by treaty ar-rangement for nine years.
Effectuated Quietly.

The navy proclamation apparently has been put into effect without blood-shed. Secretary Daniels made the following statement:
"Captain H. S. Knapp, in command of the United States forces in San Do-mingo, reports that in compliance with instructions received, military gov-ernment was proclaimed by him in San Domingo, 4 p. m. Nov. 29.
"The proclamation was well receiv-ed. Conditions are reported as being normal and the great majority of the people regard the proclamation with favor."
The necessity for a drastic step has been considered since the overthrow several months ago of President Jimi-nex by General Arias, a strongly anti-American revolutionist.
Secretary Daniels explained that the form of rule set up by Captain Knapp did not contemplate any infringement of the civil rights or process of the native government.

EIGHTY-NINE DEAD IS TOLL OF SEASON

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Eighty-nine per-sons were killed and forty-one injured in the hunting season in fifteen states which just closed. The figures were compiled by the Chicago Tribune, which compares them with fifty-nine dead and sixty-six injured last year, and 111 dead and 162 wounded for 1914.
Carelessness on the part of the hunters accounted for many of the ac-cidents. Many of the victims were mistaken for deer. Michigan leads in the number of dead with twenty-five, Illinois is second with thirteen, and Minnesota third with twelve. New York had eleven fatal accidents. Wis-consin had only six.

TRADE BODIES TO VOTE ON LAWS

Washington, Dec. 1.—Commercial bodies of the country, through a re-ferendum sent by the Chamber of Com-merce of the United States, will have an opportunity to vote on the report of a special committee which recom-mends remedial legislation to permit co-operative agreements under federal supervision in the industries which in-volve primary natural resources, on condition that the agreements in fact tend to conserve the resources, to less-en accidents, and to promote the pub-lic interests.
The plan is to make it possible for the federal trade commission to go beyond its investigation powers and for-mulate laws.
The committee studied timber, ores and deposits of useful metals and of minerals which are a source of heat, light and power.

Several Sailors and Number of Police-men Are Injured.
Honolulu, T. H., Dec. 1.—Twenty-five stokers from the liner Makuran, which arrived on the docks here prior to the steamer's departure for Sydney, N. S. W., and several of the Makuran's sail-ors and a number of Honolulu police-men were injured while endeavoring to stop the battle and herd the rioters on board their ship.
As the Makuran left the wharf the rioters started to bombard the people on the dock with bottles. A soldier doing duty as an immigration guard fired several shots in the direction of the departing steamer.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Federal officials have been asked to seek Burr B. ATHENS TROOPS MOVE INLAND

Vice Admiral Du Fournet Declares He Will Insist on Entente Orders Being Carried Out—German and Turkish Consuls Are Deported.
London, Dec. 1.—The Greek gov-ernment has sent a reply to Vice Ad-miral Du Fournet definitely refusing his demands to give up its arms, ac-cording to a Reuter dispatch from Athens.
An Athens dispatch to the Daily Chronicle under date of Nov. 30, as-cribes the following statement to Vice Admiral Du Fournet in command of the allied fleet in Greek waters.
Du Fournet to Insist on Compliance.
"I insist absolutely upon the execu-tion of my demands and will see that they are realized in spite of all ob-stacles. French, British and Italian detachments will be landed at all points necessary.
"I will endeavor to avoid bloodshed but will fulfill my mission thorough-ly."
Special dispatches from Athens, dated Thursday, say there is a grow-ing state of anxiety in the city. The Greek garrison seems to have with-drawn inland, taking arms, ammuni-tion and stores. Two regiments left during the night with artillery.
The Bourse Thursday was very firm, indicating optimism.

Allies Prepare to Land Troops.
Athens, Dec. 1.—The entente allies are ready to begin landing troops at Piraeus, the port of Athens.
The Greek government has retaken control of the postoffices and tele-graph lines in Athens, expelling the French control officers.
The entente allied authorities have deported from Syra to Malta aboard a warship G. Dalleggio, the German consul, and Suleyman Bey, Turkish consul at Syra.
The families of the consuls also were deported.

TEUTONS WITHIN SHOT RANGE OF BUCHAREST

London, Dec. 1.—The forces of Field Marshal von Mackensen are almost within shelling distance of the south-ern forts which protect Bucharest, the capital of Roumania.
Driving along the road leading north from Giurgiu, Van Mackensen has captured the town of Tzomana, sixteen miles south of Bucharest, and at last accounts was still making progress toward his objective.
Meanwhile, the army of General von Falkenhayn is keeping up its pressure against the Roumanians west and northwest of the capital, in the center having forced the Roumanians to fall back to Glavatzdota, thirty-seven miles from Bucharest, and farther north having captured the town of Campulung, thus opening the way for the unhindered advance of additional troops of the central powers through the Torzburg pass into Wallachia.
Not Impeding Teutons.
The offensive begun by the Russians in the region of Kirilhaba apparently is not impeding to any extent the Teu-tonic inroads into Roumania.
The Roumanians on the north and northwest fronts have made progress in the Buxau and Prachova valleys.
In none of the other theaters has there been any fighting of great in-tensity, so far as the official reports show. The big guns of the belliger-ents on the front in France and Bel-gium still are active at various points.
Both Berlin and Sofia record the repulse of entente allied attacks in the region of Monastir, Serbia, where rain and fog are hindering the opera-tions.
In the Russian theater Turkish troops have stopped strong Russian attacks on the Zlota Lipa river in Galicia.

GERMANY WANTS U.S. TO SEND NOTE

Von Bernstorff Delivers Sharp Protest to Lansing.
REGARDING ENVOYS IN GREECE
President Makes Fight for Tarnowski Message is Dispatched to Entente Government Asking Safe Conduct for Austrian Ambassador.

Washington, Nov. 30.—In a note de-livered to Secretary Lansing from Count von Bernstorff, Germany pro-tests against the election of the Ger-man, Austrian and Turkish legations from Greece and asks that the state department forward the protest to Great Britain.
At the same time the United States sent notes to Great Britain and France requesting re-consideration of those governments of their refusal to issue a safe conduct through their blockade lines for Count Tarnowski, the new Austro-Hungarian ambas-sador to this country.
Text of German Note.
"The French commander of the naval forces of the entente in the Greek waters has notified the envoys of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria that they had to leave Greek territory immediately with the staff of their legations and of the consulates.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and some-times very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary or-gans which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splen-did for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.
